PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Mr. Johnson is a Partner in the Tax Department and leads the Executive Committee as Chairman of the Firm, Holman Frenia Allison, P.C. (HFA), a regional certified public accounting firm of over 50 professionals, serving the New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

Craig has more than 30 years of concentrated experience in tax preparations, and is well-positioned to provide exemplary services in the area of tax preparation, planning and compliance for the Firm's most complex corporate and individual clients.

His significant expertise in small business professional services is a great benefit to many of HFA's start-up clients who seek growth through geographic and service expansion.

Craig's personal experience in the construction and real estate development areas puts him in a position to properly handle the Firm's construction contractors and property development clients. Mr. Johnson is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJCPA).

Craig is a proud member of the Jackson Township High School Alumni Hall of Fame, where he was inducted in 2020.

He is passionate about giving back to the community and is a Board Member of the Jackson Township Historic Preservation Foundation, the Jackson Township Kiwanis and the Dawn Jacobson Foundation.

Craig also serves as a Board Member on A Legacy of Love and Hope; the Joshua Stanton Cramer Foundation; a foundation that gives back to those families affected by childhood cancer. Craig's passion for helping others has become part of HFA's culture.

Craig is a lifelong resident of Jackson, NJ. He is an avid sports memorabilia collector and enjoys spending time with his family at their home in the Poconos.

Craig earned his B.S. in Accounting from Rider University.
