PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Mr. Holman is the lead Partner in the Advisory Department with Holman Frenia Allison, P.C. (HFA), a regional public accounting firm of over 50 professionals serving the New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania markets.

Matthew brings over 15 years of professional experience to HFA, providing auditing, consulting and internal control assistance to organizations. His areas of expertise include audits of Municipalities, Fire Districts, School Districts, County and Municipal Libraries.

He has extensive governmental auditing experience and assists local governmental entities with their municipal budget process. Matthew has been at the forefront of internal quality control development. He provides his clients with professional and friendly service, while constantly working to help them strengthen internal control structures and meet business objectives.

Mr. Holman is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJCPA).

Matthew has acquired the AICPA's certifications in COSO Internal Control, Cyber-Security and Client Advisory Services.

Matthew is currently serving as the Treasurer of the Monmouth Park Charity Fund, where their mission is to raise and distribute funds to non-profit agencies in Monmouth County that provide services related to health, those at risk in the community, and those in need of special services.

Mr. Holman graduated from Franklin and Marshall College with a B.A. in Accounting.

Matthew enjoys spending time with his wife and three children at their beach town. He is a tech enthusiast, craft beer connoisseur and a trop rock junkie.
