PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Craig R. Johnson is a Partner in the Tax Department and leads the Executive Committee as Chairman of Holman Frenia Allison, P.C. (HFA), a regional certified public accounting firm of over 75 professionals, serving the New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania markets.

Mr. Johnson has over 30 years of concentrated experience in accounting and tax preparation. He had served in the role of controller for several privately-owned New Jersey corporations before joining HFA in 2014.

As the Firm's senior tax partner, Mr. Johnson provides advisory services to clients to help achieve greater efficiencies in growing their business, represents clients before the IRS, provides tax planning services, and has extensive knowledge of the business as well as individual and non-profit tax return preparation.

Mr. Johnson's personal experience in the construction and real estate development areas puts him in a position to properly handle the Firm's construction contractors and property development clients. Mr. Johnson is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJCPA).

He is a proud member of the Jackson Township High School Alumni Hall of Fame, where he was inducted in 2020.

Consistent with HFA's commitment to community services, Mr. Johnson serves on the board of the Joshua Stanton Foundation - A Legacy of Love and Hope; a foundation that gives back to those families affected by childhood cancer.

He is also a board member of the Jackson Township Historic Preservation Foundation, the Jackson Township Kiwanis, and the Dawn Jacobson Foundation.

Mr. Johnson earned his B.S. in Accounting from Rider University.
